

High School Uniforms

The purpose of the dress code is to clearly distinguish Atlas Prep students from the students of other schools and to create an environment where the sole focus is academic growth.

Tops

- Students must wear a school issued top that includes an Atlas Preparatory logo.
 - Tops that excessively expose the back, chest, or shoulders are never authorized.
 - Outerwear that covers the Atlas Preparatory logo is never authorized.

Bottoms

- Students must wear full length bottoms that are black, blue, or sand in color.
 - Bottoms must be damage free and project professionalism (to include fashion rips).
 - Shorts are never authorized.
 - Athletic pants (sweatpants, yoga pants, etc.) are never authorized.

Footwear

- Students must wear footwear with a closed-toe.
 - Sandals are never authorized.
 - Slippers are never authorized.

Accessories

- Accessories that the faculty and/or administration deems derogatory are never authorized.

Upperclassman Dress Down Privilege

- Students in the 11th-12th grades are allowed to dress down on Friday.
 - The normal rules apply, but students are not required to wear an Atlas top.
- Students in the 9th-10th grades are allowed to dress down on Friday for $1.
 - All donations fund future student events (community meetings, dances, etc.)
